

CASE for a CHILD WELFARE ·R·E·V·O·L·U·T·I·O·N·

★ Debra Schilling Wolfe

CAN WE TREAT OUR CHILDREN BETTER THAN OUR PACKAGES?

BASIC ASSUMPTIONS

- ☑ Children don't live in systemic silos.
- ☑ Technology is only a tool.
- ☑ Introduce culture change prior to technology change.
- ☑ Voice of staff at all levels is critical.
- ☑ Better information helps make better decisions

Safety and Risk

- ☑ Risk to child
- ☑ Risk to caseworker

Case Management

- ☑ Services needed
- ☑ Case coordination & joint decision-making
- ☑ Preventing dynamic of "splitting"
- ☑ Avoid duplication of services

Case Supervision

- ☑ Better case supervision
- ☑ Caseload management
- ☑ Assuring provision of service

Agency Management Benefits

- ☑ Document service delivery
- ☑ Shorten service time
- ☑ Utilization of staff time
- ☑ Recruit & retain workforce